

At minimo, we stand against police brutality and white supremacy, against racial inequality and racial injustice. We stand with the protests and outrage over the most recent unjust deaths of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, and the far too many black and brown lives lost before them. Systemic issues require ongoing work, from all of us. As part of our commitment to advocacy and equality, minimo will donate once a month to an organization fighting injustice and developing solutions for a better future.

This month, minimo is donating to Campaign Zero, a comprehensive platform of research-based policy solutions to end police brutality in America, founded by Black Lives Matter activists.

We are heartbroken and saddened by the inequities that persist in this country and the impact felt in our community. We stand in solidarity with the Black community in Oakland and beyond against racism and injustice. We will continue to support local organizations by donating $100,000 today to the Oakland African American Chamber of Commerce, Oakland NAACP, and 100 Black Men of the Bay Area, who work tirelessly to serve the needs of the Black community.
